(a) what are the guidelines laid down by the Government of India for the change of names of cities;

(b) what are the names of the cities, towns and villages, the names of which have been changed according to these guidelines alongwith the original names and the changed names;

(c) whether the names of the city of Bombay can be changed to 'Mumbai' according to these guidelines;

(d) if so, when it is likely to be changed; and

(e) if not, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI BUTA SINGH): (a) The guidelines laid down in 1953 contain various broad principles which are required to be kept in view by the State Governments while examining the question of changing the names of villages, towns, cities etc. The guidelines, inter alia, mention that unless there is some very special reason, it is not desirable to change a name which people have got used to; that a change should not be made on grounds of local patriotism or for linguistic reasons or for merely satisfying local sentiments.

(b) No change in the name of city/town has been agreed to in the recent past. However, changs in the names of a few villages like Ghot Camp to Koyana Vele, Jawalawadi to Jawalapur, Khilyachiwadi to Chaitanyapur and Jadhavwadi to Jadhavnagar have been agreed to.

(c) No, Sir.

(d) Does not arise.

(e) This question had been raised in Question No. 158 which was duly answered in Rajya Sabha on 24th February, 1987.

Increase in Loan to unemployed Youth

1302. SHRI S. S. AHLUWALIA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Reserve Bank of India has decided to increase the amount of loan being advanced to the unemployed youth;

(b) if so, to what extent the amount has been increased;

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI EDUARDO FALEIRO): (a) to (d) In the year 1983, when the Scheme for providing Self-Employment to the Educated Unemployed Youth (SEEUY) was initially launched, a provision was made to give a composite loan upto Rs. 25,000/- for setting up industrial, service and business ventures. From the year 1986-87, while the ceiling on loans for industrial ventures has been raised to Rs. 35,000/-, for service ventures it has been kept unaltered at Rs. 25,000/- and for business ventures reduced to Rs. 15,000/-. No further change in the loan amount for different routes has been made since then. Separate allocation of funds is not made for each State and physical targets in terms of beneficiaries are centrally allotted to different States. For the year 1987-88, an ad hoc target of 14,800 has been laid down for Bihar.
